

List 2

squash	a sport played in a walled court with a soft rubber ball and bats like tennis racquets tennis	a sport played by either two or four players with strung racquets, a ball and a net approximately 3 feet high on a clay, grass, or cement court table tennis	a game or sport (similar to tennis) that involves the hitting of a light plastic ball across a table by racquets bowling	a game played by rolling a ball down an alley and trying to knock over a triangular group of ten pins skittles	a pub game in which a ball is rolled down a wooden alley in order to knock down as many of the nine skittles as possible golf	a ball game played by individuals competing against one another in which the object is to hit a ball into each of a series of (usually 18 or nine) holes horseback riding	the sport of riding a horse cycling	the sport of riding and racing bicycles ice-skating	the sport of skate on ice, wearing ice skates ice hockey	a game on ice in which two teams of six players skate and try to score by shooting a puck into the opposing team's net, using their sticks boxing	a sport where two opponents punch each other with gloved fists, the object being to score more points by the end of the match or by knockout

Vocabulary Trainer

Quizzes & Games

wrestling	a sport where two opponents attempt to subdue each other in bare-handed grappling using techniques of leverage, holding, and pressure points athletics	competitive activities such as sports and games requiring stamina, fitness and skill; particularly those activities known in the United States as track and field athlete	a person who does athletics as a sport race	a contest between people, animals, vehicles, etc. where the objective is to be the first to reach a goal exercise	being physically active to improve strength and fitness train	to practise an ability